

TOUR D'COOP

COOP SELECTION CRITERIA

	Yes	No
HOUSING SIZE Adequate for number of birds housed (enough perch space, room to move etc)
LOCATION Sited to stay dry, odor-free, promote comfort and health of birds
SECURITY Not a nuisance to neighbors (smells, noise, views etc)
Closable coop or coop plus welded-wire fence, buried or flared at base, or with landscape netting flared at base, for nighttime roosting
SANITATION Coop and pen clean, dry, regular removal of soiled bedding
FEED AND WATER Fresh, nutritionally complete, access to water at all times
HEALTHCARE Veterinary care and preventive medical care provided to prevent the spread of disease and mitigate suffering
BIOSECURITY Owners aware of the potential for disease transmission
Owners agree to report any bird death or illness just prior, during, or within 21 days after Tour
ENRICHMENT Birds have access to outdoor areas to dust-bathe and scratch
Owners strive to provide enriching activities (varied diet, free-range etc.)
AESTHETICS Located geographically to suit the needs of the Tour
Coops, pens and surrounding structures in good repair
Exhibits beauty, creativity or something of interest to Tour visitors
Complies with all applicable animal ordinances
Safely Accessible to visitors
Adequate, safe parking areas available near the site on Tour day		